

Venerable Anthony of Dymsk, Novgorod (January 17)

Saint Anthony of Dymsk was born at Novgorod in about the year 1157. Once in church he heard the words of Christ: "If anyone would come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me" (Mt.16:24), the saint resolved to leave the world and receive monastic tonsure under Saint Barlaam of Khutyn (November 6) at his monastery.

When he was dying, Saint Barlaam appointed Saint Anthony as igumen in his place; but Anthony, shunning glory, left the monastery and settled at the shores of Lake Dyma, on the outskirts of the city of Tikhvin. Here he founded a monastery and struggled there until the end of his own life.

According to Tradition, Saint Anthony made a journey to Constantinople, and returned to his monastery on the day that the igumen Barlaam died. Saint Anthony fell asleep in the Lord on June 24, 1224. In the year 1330 his relics were found incorrupt, and from that time they were glorified by many miracles.

REVERENCE IN GOD'S HOUSE

Leaving before Dismissal

Leaving church before the Dismissal deprives us of a blessing. Worship has a beginning (“Blessed is the Kingdom...”) and an end (“Through the prayers of our holy Fathers ... Amen”). To leave immediately after Communion is to treat church like a fast food restaurant where we come and go as we please. We live in a fast-paced world where we seem to be hurrying from place to place. But in God's presence, we need to make every attempt to fight this pressure to move on to the next thing on the day's agenda. We deprive ourselves of blessings by not being still and participating in God's holiness. Eat and run at the fast-food place - but stay in church and thank God for his precious gift.
